

In your home recycling bin

Clear & colored glass bottles and jars (no window glass, dishware or ceramics)

Corrugated cardboard (clean only)

White office paper, Newspaper, colored paper, Magazines, Telephone and paperback books

Plastic bottles #1 and #2 (with a neck) only!
Tin food cans & Aluminum beverage cans

At the Olmsted County Recycling Center- fee for disposal

Address: 305 Silver Creek Rd NE
55906

Phone: 507-328-7070

Fax: 507-328-7090

Monday-Friday: 8-5

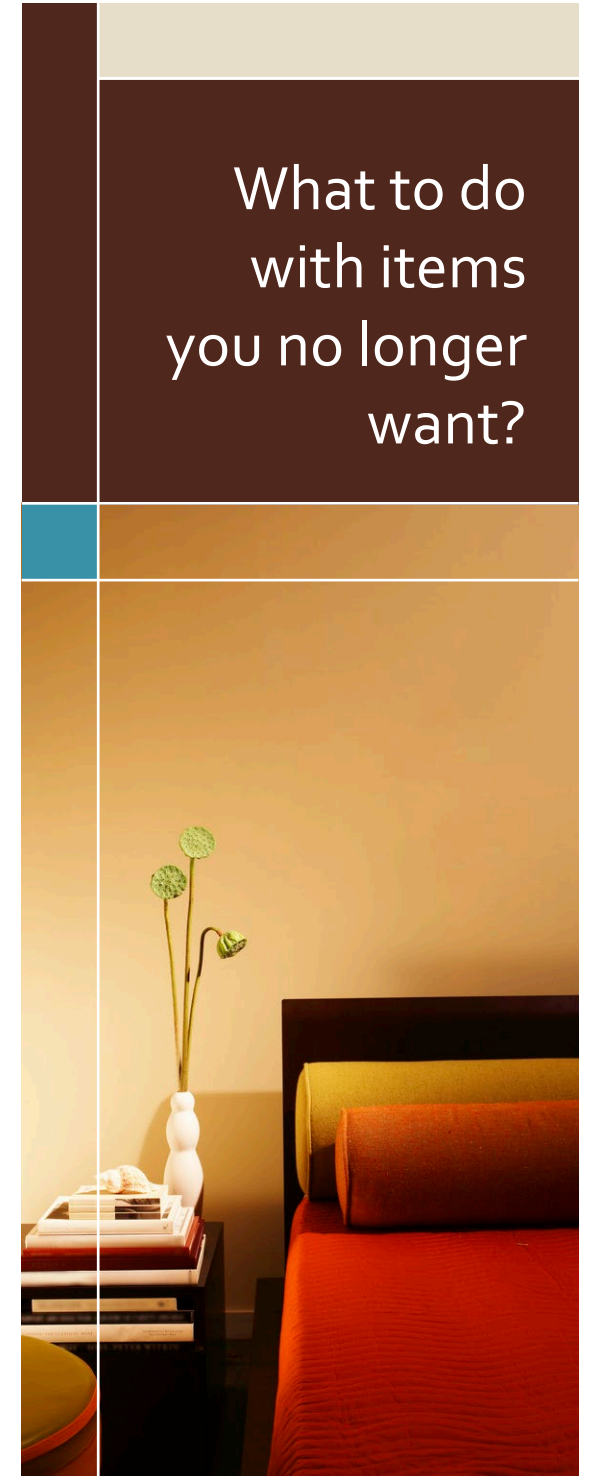

Go to:

<https://www.coolmsted.mn.us/environmentalresources/garbagerecycling/Pages/default.aspx>

Type in your item and they will tell you how to recycle it

- Appliances (recycled)
- Bikes
- Brush/tree waste (small quantities)
- Carpeting
- Computer systems & TV's (recycled)
- Construction materials & drywall
- Furniture & Mattresses
- Grills
- Lawn mowers (empty of fluids)
- Tires (8 or fewer)

What to do with items you no longer want?

Also at the county facility

Hazardous Waste Facility (some have a surcharge for disposal)

- Paints (you can pick up free paint here too!)
- Stains & Varnishes
- Household Cleaners
- Solvents
- Aerosols
- Pesticides
- Mercury products such as thermostats and thermometers
- Auto, rechargeable, and button batteries (free)
- Used Antifreeze
- Agricultural Pesticides (free up to 300 lbs.)
- Antifreeze
- Asbestos Containing Materials
- Cell Phones (free)
- Filters (oil, gas, transmission)
- Fluorescent Tubes
- Lead Paint Chips
- Lithium, Mercury, Silver Oxide Batteries (free)
- Metallic Mercury
- Propane Tanks

Clothing, Toys, Household Items, Books and Media

Thrift on Fifth- Accepts in season clothing for all ages as well as shoes and boots. No out of season items, household goods, etc.

CUMC hosts a rummage sale twice a year and will take your good conditioned household & clothing items

Goodwill, Salvation Army, Savers accept household and clothing items. Salvation Army will pick up!
<https://satruck.org/> Savers does regular pick-ups (yellow cards come in the mail from the Epilepsy Foundation) as do the Veterans.

Craig's list and Facebook Marketplace are great options for selling or giving away items that are still useable. The curb works too!

Books and media including magazines can be donated to the Rochester Public Library (bins inside and outside the library)

Non-expired food items can be donated directly to Channel One or through a food drive